

Member Scholarship Program

This program is intended for women who understand and believe in the mission and model of Impact100 SRQ, but who initially may not be able to fund a Membership on their own. Therefore, in an effort to encourage generations of women philanthropists, Impact100 SRQ, funded through the generous support of donors, will be providing scholarship grants based on a sliding scale, to enable women to experience the full membership benefits of Impact100 SRQ and the power of collective giving.

This program grants a membership donation scholarship and requires the recipient to do all of the following:

- Complete and submit a Member Scholarship Application by the stated deadline.
- Choose either the 2 or 3 year sliding scale option and pay the amounts listed in membership donations for each year as required.
- Commit to being an active member of Impact100 SRQ, including participation in our Grant Review Process.
- Explore all options of Membership costs, including payment plans and donor or employer scholarship.

Sliding Payment Scale Options:

Year of Membership	Member Payment	Impact100 SRQ Payment
1	$550	$550
2	$1,100	$0
1	$550	$550
