

Impact 100 SRQ Privacy Policy

Impact 100 SRQ values and respects all individuals and organizations that utilize our website and services. We are committed to protecting your privacy. When you register to be a member, make a donation, or select a volunteer opportunity, we may specifically ask for information about you – such as name, home or email address, and billing information – in order to provide that service or information to you. This information will be used solely for the purposes of completing your registration, donation or locating the volunteer opportunity you are seeking. If you do elect to provide your name and information to us, we will retain your name and may use it for future solicitations.

We do not disclose, share, sell, or trade information about you to any outside companies except for the use of processing the donation transaction or completing the service or request that you initiate.

Impact 100 SRQ uses trusted third-party service providers to provide above services and operations in a secure and safe environment. Impact 100 SRQ may disclose personal information to these service providers as needed to process information on Impact 100 SRQ's behalf. These trusted third-party service providers have their own privacy policies that we encourage you to review prior to providing them with any of your personal information.

Members have the option at any time to elect to withhold their personal information, donate anonymously, elect not to have their name included in a membership directory that is shared only with other members, or to opt out by unsubscribing. Individuals may contact Impact 100 SRQ at admin@impact100srq.org to review personal information collected, request corrections or ask for your personal information to be deleted. We will only release personal information about you, if necessary, in order to comply with valid legal process such as a search warrant, subpoena or court order.
